Foreign Aid Plans Are OK'd By Committees

Recovery Funds Not To Be Used For Part Of Cost

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Two senate committees formally approved a $122,500,000 foreign aid program today but refused to dip into European recovery funds for part of the cost.

The foreign relations and armed services committees voted 12 to 0 to continue for a second year the program to re-arm non-Communist nations.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations group said he would try to get a senate vote on the measure next Thursday if possible.

The senators agreed to limit President Truman's power to give arms aid to nations outside the North Atlantic Pact.

As the measure was originally drafted, Truman would have had authority to re-arm any nation if he deemed it in the interest of American security. The revised bill limits this aid to Western Europe.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) sought to pin an amendment on the bill which would have diverted $100,000,000 of European recovery funds to the arms program. But Connally said this was rejected "by a strong vote."

"The main objection," he said, "was that we didn't want to scramble up the Marshall Plan and the arms plan."

The measure authorizes: $100,000,000 in arms and equipment for the North Atlantic

Vote On Amended Social Security Bill Set Tuesday

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Senate Democratic and Republican leaders teamed up today in an effort to speed passage of an expanded social security program. Voting on amendments is set to start Tuesday afternoon.

In separate interviews, Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) GOP policy leader, told a reporter they expect the social security measure to go through in about the form it came from the senate finance committee.

Lucas is pushing for one amendment that would increase the taxable wage base to $3,600 a year. It now is $3,000 with employees and employers each contributing 1-1/2 per cent of wages up to this amount.

Senator George (D-Ga.), finance committee chairman and in charge of the bill, was expected to go along with the Lucas proposal if he and other Democrats would drop other amendments.

The senate bill would add an estimated 10,000,000 persons to the 35,000,000 now covered by the old age and survivors insurance program.

Both it and a similar measure already passed by the house would sharply increase monthly payments to aged persons, but the senate committee dropped house provisions for increases in the related old age assistance program.

Record Flight Of B-36s Start On California Hop

FORT WORTH, June 19.—(AP)—Ten B-36s cleared Carswell Air Force base this morning for Fairfield Suisun Air Force base, Calif., on what an air force headquarters described as "a regular training mission."

Brig. Gen. C. S. Irvine, 7th Bombardment wing commander, was aboard the first plane airborne and plane and personnel were underway at Carswell for some days have indicated that the mission involved is one of major proportions.

The flight was the largest involving B-36s since 16 of them were paraded in formation before members of congress at Andrews Air Force base near Washington in the spring of 1949.

The planes began taking off at 6 a. m., at 15 minute intervals. Convair technicians from the Fort Worth plant were understood to be aboard one plane.

The ship flown by Col. Bartlett, 436th Squadron commander, was one of the newly-equipped B-36s with pods slung under its fuselage, carrying spare engines.

Dispatches from Washington Friday reported that B-36s would participate this week in "operation Whiplash" in which simulated raids would be made by bombers on the Pacific coast.

Whether the present movement of B-36s is a part of that exercise or not, it is disclosed General Irvine is originator of the "cruise control" method of stretching bomber mileage by fuel consumption techniques.

Texas One Of 5 States With Gain In Farm Income

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Texas was one of five states whose farmers' income gained during the first four months of 1950.

As a whole, the agriculture department said the national figure is expected to be about $10,600,000 or nine per cent less the first six months this year than the first half of 1949.

The May and June estimates are tentative, but most states show a decline for the first four months.

For the January-April period, Texas has a total of $492,264,000, compared to $391,371,000 the same period last year.

The agriculture department blamed the national decline on a drop of about 6 per cent in the prices farmers receive, and a reduction in the volume of marketing.

Receipts for crop marketings dropped about 15 per cent, but livestock receipts were down only about 6 per cent. Poultry and eggs declined 20 per cent.

In addition, some loss is expected in wheat and cotton income because of smaller crops and lower prices.

The four states other than Texas with gains for the first four months with comparative figures for the 1949 and 1950 periods: California $505,950,000 in 1949, $506,324,000 in 1950; Florida $171,264,000 and $205,077,000; Kentucky $174,898,000 and $176,432,000; Oklahoma $125,771,000 and $135,264,000.

Compromise On Rent Controls Is Reported Reached

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Senate and house conferees agreed today on a compromise bill extending federal rent controls for six months beyond June 30.

The compromise, subject to approval by both chambers of congress, gives municipalities power to keep a federal control for an additional six months, or until June 30, 1951. In communities where no such action is taken, controls would end automatically on Dec. 31.

The house had voted for an automatic seven-month extension, with an additional five months optional. The senate wanted a six-months automotive extension, with six months optional.

The conferees accepted a house provision giving controls the right to remove controls before December 31 in unincorporated areas. Cities already have that authority.

Dallas Painter Is Electrocutated

DALLAS, June 19.—(AP)—Leo Richards, 35, employee of a paint contractor, was electrocuted today for a murder in Waco. He was convicted of the "cruel and unusual" death of a woman in a 2,400-volt power line. Four other men pushing the scaffold escaped with only minor shock.

The men were working near a Braniff International Airways hangar at Love Field. Braniff officials said the scaffold being moved reached 35 feet into the air.

Western Allies Reported Mining Key Roads, Bridges To Forestall Attacks

By WES GALLAGHER.

FRANKFURT, Germany, June 19.—(AP)—The Western Allies are reported mining key roads and bridges throughout West Germany and other parts of Europe to foil all possible Soviet attack.

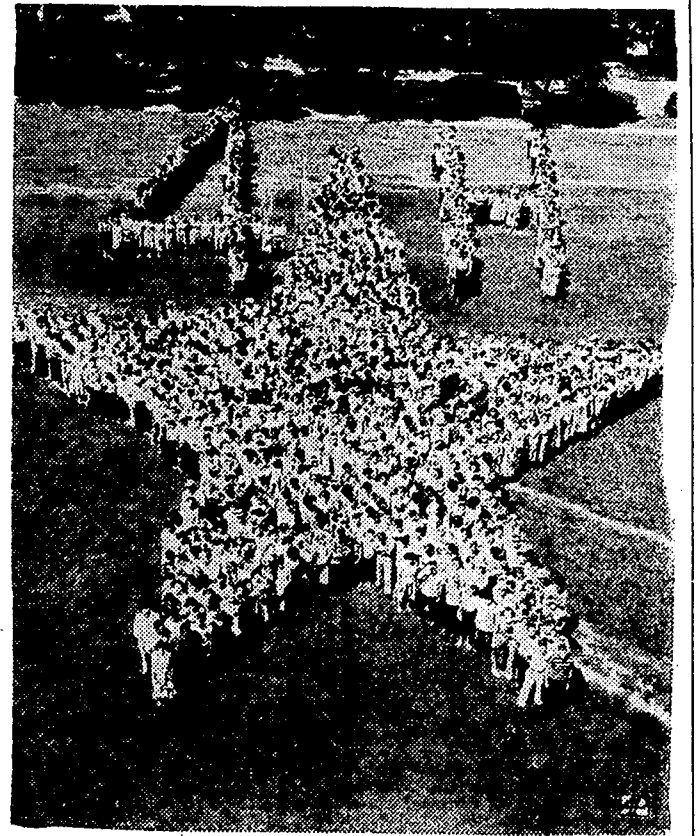

These preparations came to light when a German magazine published pictures of a winding mountain on the Rhine river highway around famed Lorelei in the French zone. The pictures showed a row of holes being drilled in the road and then covered with concrete.

Explosive charges dropped into its narrowest points.

American headquarters declined to comment. But a French source in the Koblenz area said:

"It is not only on this route on which such measures are taken and not only the French who are making such preparations. It is the Allied high command which ordered this."

Plans have been in the books for more than a year for Allied occupation forces in Western Ger-

60-Year-Old Victim Of Negro Rapist Is Reported In Critical Condition

ROCKWALL, Tex., June 19.—(AP)—Charges of rape and assault on a 60-year-old woman today against L. C. Sims, 25-year-old negro.

Sims, who confessed that he raped a 60-year-old woman and shot her six times, is being held in the Dallas county jail.

Collin county Attorney Paul Worden said at McKinney that he filed the charges with Justice of the Peace Sid Williams.

Sims was arrested at his home in Josephine, Tex.

The victim, Mrs. C. H. Thurman, a farm woman who lives a mile west of Josephine, was in critical condition in a Greenville hospital.

Denson said Sims signed a statement and told officers he threw the weapon used in the shooting into a pool at a cotton gin near Josephine.

The ranger said Sheriff Levi Browley of McKinney, Collin county, where charges would be filed, was present when Sims made the statement.

Two Suspected Polio Victims Sent To Hospital

Dr. Will Miller, acting director of the Corsicana-Navarro Health Unit, said the cases were reported to him by Dr. Terry Sanders, Kerens.

The children brought Navarro county's polio total for 1950 to three. All have been reported from the Kerens area. Sent to Waco for observation were a five-year old girl and a 10-year old boy.

McDonald, Linder Trials Delayed

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—The trial of the Texas and Georgia agriculture commissioners on charges of violating the federal lobbyist law has been postponed again, this time until Oct. 30.

The postponement was the fourth in the case. Originally, it was set for Feb. 13. It was postponed until April 17, then continued to May 29, on which day it was continued over until today.

The commissioners are James E. McDonald of Texas and Tom Linder of Georgia. Others facing the same charges are Ralph E. Moore, Washington, Robert M. Harris of New York and the National Farm committee.

They are accused of lobbying in congress for higher farm prices without registering as lobbyists as required by law. The committee is a Texas corporation described by the government as a front for the individual defendants.

Navy Claiming New Records On Pacific Flights

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 19.—(AP)—The giant Caroline Mars ended a 2,600-mile flight from Hawaii Sunday with 144 men aboard. Never before, the Navy said, had so many been carried so far non-stop in one aircraft.

A little later, a sister flying boat—the Hawaii Mars—settled down on San Diego Bay with 106 men. She had taken off two hours and five minutes before the Caroline.

Saturday, flown 2,400 miles to Alameda, Calif., added 5,000 pounds of cargo and then hopped on here.

In these two flights, the Navy said, it spread their wings 200 feet. The Navy had ferried an entire company of Marine reservists in full combat kit from the islands for training exercises at nearby Camp Pendleton.

The lift made by the Caroline—which has more powerful engines than the other Mars flying boats—wasn't a world record for passenger planes. That was made by the Marquis Mars last year. She carried 308 men—but only on the short 450-mile hop from Alameda to San Diego.

The Caroline's effort cleanly topped the Hawaii's Mars' Old Hawaii-California mark made in 1946 with 118 men aboard.

Senate Is Told It's Not Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Vice President Barkley today tartly reminded the senate that it is not a grand jury and said he doubted the propriety of an investigation of public officials that might result in an impeachment.

Barkley made his comments in referring to the judiciary committee's resolution signed by 21 Republican senators demanding a separate investigation of the Justice department's handling of the 1945 Amerasia secret documents case.

Barkley sent the resolution, notwithstanding a Senate prearranged (R-Ind.) for himself and 20 other to the judiciary committee which would be authorized to conduct the inquiry.

Chairman McCarran (D-Nev.) already has turned down a personal request made by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) for such a probe. McCarran told Ferguson that he saw no reason for the inquiry because a senate foreign relations subcommittee already has the case under investigation.

Today's senate exchange came on the heels of a statement from Attorney General McGrath that the justice department will decide soon whether to make public a full report on the Amerasia matter as recommended by a federal grand jury.

The case involves the theft of hundreds of government wartime documents which federal raiders later turned up in the New York office of Amerasia magazine. Six persons were later arrested. Two were fined and charged against four were dropped.

Barkley said he was not permitted to look into motives that caused the resolution to be introduced. He said he had no right to consider the wisdom or the folly of the senate having two investigations on the same subject going on at the same time.

But he called attention to the senate to the fact that the basis for the state and congressional investigations is legislation. He expressed doubt that the resolution contemplates any lawmaking.

He also noted that impeachment proceedings—proceedings to remove a federal official from office—were started in the house, with the senate acting as a jury.

He said for that reason he "entertained doubts" as to the propriety of any senate investigation of

Cleburne Shows All-Time High Of 12,842 Residents

FORT WORTH, June 19.—(AP)—Cleburne's population reached an all-time high of 12,842 while Johnson County's increased from 30,384 to 31,108 during the last 10 years, district census supervisor James M. Hamilton announced today.

He pointed out that the urban areas in 1920 in Cleburne to 71,045 as compared to the 724 increase in the county total. The urban increase indicates continuance of population, he said.

The previous high in Cleburne, the county seat, was 12,820 in 1920. Population decreased during the intervening years to a low of 10,558 in 1930.

Alvarado's population showed the second largest increase with the total rising 324 to 1,652.

The census report showed an increase of 122 in Burleson to 7,116 in Godley to 423; 59 in Grandview to 882, and an increase of 36 at Venus, bringing the total to 357.

County Democrats Arrange Ticket, List Assessments

Plans for the two primary elections by the Democratic party were completed at a meeting of the county executive committee held at the courthouse Monday morning.

The committee was the guest of John C. Calhoun, state chairman, at the Navarro Hotel at noon Monday and the candidates decided on an official speaking tour prior to the first primary election, July 2.

Drawings for places on the ticket were made by the committee.

Two vacancies were filled and Paul Moore, secretary, and the primary committee were authorized to make necessary business, fill vacancies, etc., until the next meeting of the county-wide committee.

Nineteen precinct chairmen answered the roll call and the primary committee was authorized to conduct the regular business.

A motion passed that the clerks be paid $5 per day for the election and the precinct chairman will get $3 as he brings in the returns.

H. A. Scott was appointed as precinct chairman at Frost, succeeding the late W. V. Harrison. Earl McDaniel was named at Richland, succeeding H. T. Green, resigned. Other vacancies will be assigned as the returns come in.

The name of J. E. McDonald, agriculture commissioner, whose application is in the courts, was drawn so that if he wins his court case he will be the primary election on the ballot. He was placed in the fourth place in the draw.

Assessments Voted.

The assessments of the candidates for roll call and the primary was voted, with slight increases.

Same Voters Approve Socialization of Vast Industries—

Ruhr Valley Workers Give Communism Crushing Defeat

By DONALD DOANE.

DUESSELDORF, Germany, June 19.—(AP)—The miners and steel workers of the Ruhr valley rejected Russia's policies in Germany and gave Communism a crushing defeat at the polls Sunday.

But while they rejected Communism, the same workers voted for a state constitution calling for socialization of the Ruhr's basic industries.

The Ruhr workers elected a legislature for their home state of North-Westphalia, in the British occupation zone. It is the most populous state of West Germany with 9,000,000 registered voters.

The smoke from the Ruhr's powerhouses was West Germany's Communist stronghold. Three years ago, the Communists got 14 per cent of the vote. They were the third largest party in the state.

Sunday, they got 5.5 per cent, and went into fifth place. Max Reimann, their leader, trailed badly in Dortmund.

Thousand of workers who had voted Communist before turned their backs on Russia and blasted Communist hopes of winning the Ruhr away from the West.

They apparently spoke for all of West Germany's 46,000,000 people who condemn Russian policies in East Germany.

At the same time, the North Rhine-Westphalia voters also showed they have no love for resurgent German nationalism. The noisy militant candidates—some of them with Hitler-like slogans—got only 1.9 per cent of the ballots. Extremism, both of left and right, was rejected.

The voters turned instead to their traditional parties—the conservative Christian Democrats and the socialists (social democratic party).

A quirk of local politics, the conservative voters were responsible for approval of a constitution calling for socialization. They apparently voted for the constitution because it contained a provision calling for denominational schools administered by the churches.

Many socialists, however, had opposed the constitution because of the school issue.

The exact nature and extent of possible socialization is not clear in the constitution. It speaks of "large factories of the basic industries and undertakings which because of their monopolistic positions have special significance."

ERICKSON MAY GET MAXIMUM OF 60 YEARS

Believe Effort Is Made To Protect Big-Money Bettors

NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—Frank Erickson, boss of a nationwide, multi-million-dollar book-making empire, pleaded guilty today to gambling charges that could send him to prison for 60 years.

The pudgy gambling czar, who never spent a day in jail in his life, entered the plea as he was brought into special sessions court for trial.

Reports circulated that Erickson made the guilty plea to protect wealthy big-money bettors. District Attorney Frank Hogan said he would demand "the stiffest sentence" possible when Erickson is returned to court Monday for sentencing.

The 54-year-old gambler, who admittedly netted $100,000 profits annually from his coast-to-coast gambling operations, is subject to a maximum penalty of one year in jail and a $500 fine on each count in the conspiracy and 59 counts of bookmaking.

Erickson was continued in $10,000 bail.

After Gelb entered the plea, the

Judge Rules Equal Negro Facilities Must Be Provided

FORT WORTH, June 19.—(AP)—The Eleuthis Independent school district must provide equal facilities for negroes, rather than transfer them to Fort Worth, federal Judge Joseph B. Dooley ruled in a declaratory judgment filed in the U. S. district court's office here today.

The judgment is of statewide significance as the transfer of negro students has been a widespread practice in Texas. The case was heard in U. S. district court here recently, and was brought by a group of negro parents against school officials.

The federal court, according to the judgment, is bound "to provide and maintain in the district public school facilities and education for resident negro schoolchildren of said district, as anti-discrimination statutes and education provided at the same time for white schoolchildren of the district."

Trustees "were and are without legal authority to right to close the negro school, but still maintain the white school in said district, and in lieu of a local negro school seek to transfer all negro students to the district of Fort Worth independent school district," the judge declared.

He said the fact that the negro school was closed "was of no high standard made no difference."

The Eleuthis controversy arose when, at the conclusion of the 1949-1950 school term, trustees there closed the negro school, which was in need of extensive repairs, and announced that negro schoolchildren would be transported to and forth to Fort Worth schools.

A group of negro parents refused to accept the transfer and in the suit filed here said they were paying a private teacher to instruct their children.

Negro attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People stated during the trial that the Eleuthis trustees would constitute a test pattern for approximately 1,100 school districts in Texas and four other southern states.

Final Attempt On Wild Gasser Now Slated Tuesday

BIG SPRING, June 19.—(AP)—An attempt to blow the fire out of a wildly-burning oil well near here was postponed today until Tuesday.

Nine days after the well exploded into columns of smoke and flame which killed a geologist, professional oil well fire fighters made careful preparations for the snuff-out job.

McKinley, Houston oilfield troubleshooter, cleared away the last of the junk around the well and had dikes thrown up around the site. He was rejoined by Paul Adair of Houston, who flew from Big Spring a week ago to help blow out a gas well fire at Renova, Pa.

An army weapons team gave the professionals a chance when they scored hits on the rotary table of the well with a 75-millimeter recoilless rifle Saturday night. The rotary table had turned the flaming oil downward—making it impossible to blow out.

When the table was shelled it allowed the flame to shoot skyward. The firefighters waited until the ground oil had burned out last night and then began moving in on the flare.

The well—the No. 1 Panamerican Holley—blew out a week ago Saturday night, killing a geologist with its first searing blast.

Washington Milk Strike Is Settled

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—The eight-day Washington milk strike has now been settled and deliveries are expected to be back to normal by Tuesday or Wednesday.

Nine big dairies, which supply the bulk of Washington's milk, had been shut down since June 10 in a strike over a demand by the AFL Milk Drivers and Dairy Employees Union for shorter week without loss of take-home pay.

To Operate 7 Days.

The strike settlement came by an agreement on an average 51-2 day week—compared with the previous 6-day week—without loss of pay, effective Sept. 1.

The dairies abandoned their proposals calling for the plants to close on Sundays and agreed to continue to operate seven days. The union had argued that to close on Sunday would lose customers and thus cut the drivers' commissions.

Dairy spokesmen refused to say whether prices to customers will go up as a result of the agreement. There were estimates it would add 100 to 150 new employees. The striking employees numbered 1,650.

Emergency Plan Ended.

An emergency distribution plan set up to take care of infants, hospitals and other public institutions during the strike, has been cancelled.

The strike just about eliminated fresh milk from the diets of most Washingtonians for a week. District of Columbia law forbids the sale of milk from dairies not inspected by District health officers.

Hens Give Brannan More Ammunition In Support Of Revised Farm Program

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON, June 18.—(AP)—The hens seem to be giving Secretary of Agriculture Brannan some ammunition in his argument with President Allan E. Kline of the Farm Bureau Federation.

Kline, an Iowa hog farmer, says a good way to control farm production—that is, prevent overproduction—is to reduce government price guarantees when supplies are too big and to raise them when shortages threaten.

Reduced price supports, he says, would cause many farmers to stop producing affected commodities until surpluses are used up.

If shortages threatened, Kline would increase government price promises. Farmers would produce more, he says, and shortages would soon disappear.

Theory Being Used

The Kline theory is the basis of present farm price support legislation.

Secretary Brannan says this principle will not work. He contends that, falling prices simply lead most farmers to produce more on the theory they can keep their incomes up by selling more.

Right now the heavy rate of egg production lends support to Brannan's side of the argument.

Egg production was greater last year than consumer demands, AS consequence, the government bought 55,508,000 pounds of dried eggs—equal to about 205,000,000 dozen shell eggs—to support prices at an average of 45 cents a dozen.

This year the government cut the egg support price to 35 cents a dozen—a reduction of more than 20 per cent.

What about production? Has it gone down?

Latest agriculture department figures show that egg production is running seven per cent higher this year than a year ago. Yet in May producer prices averaged 29.6 cents a dozen compared with 43.4 cents in May last year.

Dried Eggs Up

Much of this extra production is being bought by the government under the price support promises. Purchases of dried eggs so far this year total 59,000,000 pounds—equal to 177,000,000 dozen of shell eggs. With more than six months to go, this year's purchases will be larger than last.

Advocates of flexible supports say that one year's test is not long enough to prove anything. They longed low prices, they argued, would do the job of reducing output.

Brannan, on the other hand, argues that if low prices finally curbed output will be because farmers are forced to quit because of bankruptcy.

Semi-Finals Were Staged Sunday; Fairways Dry

By TALMADGE CANANT

Sports Staff

Albert McMichael, defending champion, and Willie Harmon fought their way through semi-finals matches Sunday to reach the final in the championship flight of the seventh annual Oaks Invitational golf tournament.

McMichael disposed of Joe Rehders, 4 and 3 on the fifteenth hole to gain the finals for the second time in as many years. He put together two birdies, two bogies and five pars for a normal score in the first nine, then fired two more birdies on the back nine to take Rehders, who had putter trouble and took too many bogies.

Harmon Downs Stubbs

Willie Harmon's match went the full 18 holes with Clayton Stubbs in the lower bracket. His steady putting kept him at a 36-71 score on the full round, and the contestants went into the 18th hole with Stubbs one down. They halved the hole, and Harmon took the match.

The dry fairways and greens kept sub-par scores at a minimum. The 36-hole finals match between McMichael and Harmon is 25, if weather permits.

Now facing each other in the finals of the first flight are Van Elkins and Claude Robinson. Elkins downed Billy Patrick, 3 and 2 to gain the penultimate round, and Robinson disposed of Doug Hill, 5 and 4 to reach the finals. Elkins and Robinson plan to play next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

There was no play in the second flight Sunday. In the third flight, Joe Ard beat J. C. Dillard downed Richard Stubbs, 1-up.

Shook vs. Pike

In the championship flight consolation match, Shook and Calvin Pike were the finalists. Shook beat George McPherson, 6 and 5, and Pike swamped Ed Wyrick, 7 and 6.

In the consolation of the first flight, J. M. Smith bested M. D. Shook, 6 and 5, and Avery Jackson took David Woolley by the same score, 6 and 5.

Stubbs downed Tiny McMullan, 2-up in the only match played in the second flight consolation. Robert Pollock beat Nathaniel Eller, 4 and 3 in the only match played in the third flight consolation.

A good gallery was on hand all Sunday afternoon to watch the matches.

GRAIN HARVEST UNDER WAY—W. A. Peden (above) is operating a combine owned by Lewis David of Pickett on the Ernest Moore farm southwest of Corsicana on Farm-Market 709. It will be noted that the oats have fallen and a pick-up reel is being employed to aid in getting all of the grain. This 10-foot-cut combine is one of scores over Navarro county that have been going at full speed to harvest the oat and other grain crops following the continued rains until a few days ago. Early-season dry weather curbed the growth of the grains, but later precipitation is credited with causing a fair yield.

Fishermen Land Bass This Week

J. C. Roe, local attorney, landed a big bass Thursday somewhere west of Corsicana.

The sportsman, who also is the chairman of the Corsicana Country Club golf tournament committee, stated that the huge bass weighed only 5-14 pounds, but looked much bigger.

A Hawaiian wiggler, artificial lure, was employed to get the big one.

Roe declines to reveal the lake or stream where he seeks the finny tribe.

Widows Eligible For GI Homes

Un-remarried widows of veterans who died in World War II and who are eligible for GI home, farm and business loans, The Veterans Administration announced Monday through its local representative, Robert C. Reeder.

Eligibility requirements for such widows to receive the benefits generally include those governing death compensation.

"The veteran must have served in the Armed Forces at some period between Sept. 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, and his death must have been a result of service while on duty, or from service-connected causes following discharge under

BOYLE'S Column

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The greatest of home-lovers are those who never bought a house.

Or so it seems to them.

Owning a place of his own is one of man's oldest dreams, and nothing proves more surely that, to this extent at least, he is a capitalist by nature.

It begins in childhood. And a growing boy relives the history of the human race's desire for a better shelter.

Starts As Child

Soon after he learns to walk he starts crawling under the table and piling chairs around it to build him a kind of lean-to home. Next he digs a cave in the backyard, roofed with tin. Then he builds a tottery tree house and feels he is monarch of all he surveys. And finally, he comes down into the backyard again and constructs a wooden shack as a kind of club-room for his pals.

After he gets a job and marries, he starts dreaming again of a place really his own. Whether he actually does buy a home or stays a renter the rest of his days, he never forgets the thrill of that first jungle lean-to in his parents' living room, the cave, tree house and shanty in the backyard.

Desire Continues

And the longer he goes without his own home the more he wants it—in his heart, no matter what his mouth says.

Every Sunday for the last 13 years I've spent most of the day going through the real estate advertisements, mentally buying a home one moment, discarding it the next. There's something wrong with them all.

But it looks now as though my dream house—if I ever get it—will be a trailer with a built-in rock garden and a portable outdoor barbecue pit.

GRAIN HARVEST UNDER WAY—W. A. Peden (above) is operating a combine owned by Lewis David of Pickett on the Ernest Moore farm southwest of Corsicana on Farm-Market 709. It will be noted that the oats have fallen and a pick-up reel is being employed to aid in getting all of the grain. This 10-foot-cut combine is one of scores over Navarro county that have been going at full speed to harvest the oat and other grain crops following the continued rains until a few days ago. Early-season dry weather curbed the growth of the grains, but later precipitation is credited with causing a fair yield.

Truman's position has been that he thinks the wartime excise taxes should be cut, but that there should be increases elsewhere to offset the cuts.

Rayburn said he anticipated the house would begin debate next week—probably on Tuesday—on the ways and means committee's bill.

Senate Democratic leader Lucas said that if the house completed action on the bill next week, he thought the senate could wind up work on it before the end of July.

They have raised charges that the case was "whitewashed" without full prosecution.

Take Sunshine In Small Doses

By W. P. BROWN
 Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Anyone who has been seriously burned by the sun knows the agony of real pain. Sunburn creeps up without much warning and in a comparatively short time.

Some victims suffer not only the pain of the burn but have other physical reactions as well. Children especially suffer from summer sun if not carefully watched.

Doctors know the healing powers of the sun but they agree its rays must be taken in small amounts. A good oil will help keep your skin from drying, and if you should get a bad case of sunburn, see your doctor at once.

$131,500,000 for Greece, Turkey and Iran; $75,000,000 for the Chinese; $18,000,000 for the Republic of Korea and the Philippines.

The China area funds include a secret fund of $7,500,000 for which Truman would not be required to give any accounting. And on another $27,500,000 he would be required to report on—identically only to the congressional committees dealing with foreign affairs and the armed forces.

On the $40,000,000 balance of China area funds, Truman would report to congress in the usual manner to explain how the funds were used.

Connally said the committee eased the restrictions on arms purchases by friendly nations. Under the new bill, he added, they would not be required to pay cash on delivery—rather than when the contracts were made.

The arms forces chiefs had requested this change to permit friendly nations to pay for arms on delivery—rather than when the contracts were made.

 judge turned to Erickson and asked:

"Does the defendant plead guilty to each of the 60 counts?"

"Yes," Erickson replied.

His fingers pressed hard against the table top, but his face appeared without emotion.

Hogan said he saw no reason why the 64-year-old defendant should not be sent to jail for a long time. "The gambler never has spent a day in jail."

There are reports that Erickson pleaded guilty in an attempt to lessen his penalty, although his attorney had maintained up to the time of the trial that he defendant would not do so.

Speculation also circulated that the guilty plea was entered as a means of protecting big-money bettors. Some of these businessmen reportedly wagered up to $15,000 daily through Erickson.

Several of them had appeared before the grand jury which made the charges against Erickson.

The jury investigation came after a raid on Erickson's plush Park Avenue offices by a squad of district attorney's men. They confiscated a truckload of records and data.

The raid was an upshot of Erickson's admission before a senate investigating subcommittee that he operated a $12,500,000-a-year, coast-to-coast law-breaking bookmaker enterprise.

RUHR VOTE

 It is possible socialization of these industries may not be effected until after the next elections three years from now—despite the constitution.

This is because of the strength gained in the legislature by conservative and right-wing parties which generally oppose socialization.

With final provisional returns completed, the conservative Christian Democrats and the right wing free democratic party had 119 seats in the 215 man legislature, winning 49 per cent of the popular vote.

The social democrats obtained 68 seats, the Communists 12.

The Zentrum (centrist) party, which sometimes votes with the right, sometimes with the left, won 16 seats with 7.5 per cent of the valid vote.

Neither the Communists nor the extreme right wing and Nationalist parties got a single man elected directly.

The Communists received their 12 seats on the basis of votes cast throughout the state.

Because the extreme right wingers did not receive as much as five per cent of the vote, they get no seats in the legislature.

The Communists lost their strength to right wing parties. The free democrats went up to third, going from 5.3 per cent of the vote three years ago to 12.1 per cent Sunday.

The strength of the Christian Democrats and the Socialists was relatively the same as three years ago.

Franz Bluecher, chairman of the Free Democratic party and vice chancellor, said the vote furnished approval of West German federal government policies.

He was asked if Chancellor Konrad Adenauer liked the results. "You can certainly say so," Bluecher replied.

There was one report of violence, six persons hurt in a clash between Communists and a right

The Poet Of The People

"HEARTBEAT" ASKES FOR

GIVENESS.

Dear Lord, forgive me, now I

pray,

For all those falsehoods, day by day,

Using deception, not to well,

To keep my promise not to tell,

To son and daughter when they asked,

I said: "Am I not over-taxed

With all the calls that come to me?"

How could I Mr. Heartbeat be?"

"I am convinced," a good friend

wrote,

(And I am quoting from his note)

"You Mr. Heartbeat. If I'm

right,

A drink for you I'll buy on sight,

And, if I'm wrong, as I may be,

Then you may have a drink on

me."

"If you are right" was my reply,

"A drink for you I'll gladly buy."

Lord, in Thy good grace me restore.

Now I can be myself once more!

Forgive me for the things I did

To keep my role of Heartbeat hid.

The poker face, the way I'd scoff

To brush the probing question off,

'Twas all for a good purpose done.

And Heartbeat had a lot of fun.

We can always get by. (We are condensing his words, not quoting.) But along with it we must arm ourselves with weapons of the spirit.

One is a disciplined mind—

that is where education counts. One is a critical habit of mind. Only the habit of looking analytically at life are we enabled to discriminate between fact and rumor, fact and fiction, intellectual observation and emotional prejudices. The critical habit of mind, moreover, implies

the possession of objective standards by which we may safely judge what we see.

A sense of history is also necessary. Knowing what has gone before provides a sense of proportion, a perspective on life today. Sir

Oliver here reminded his audience of Ulysses who, after long wandering and hardship almost reached despair.

Then he got himself together and told himself: "Bear up, my heart; all you are experiencing and worse than that was endured by men long before you." This sense of history, besides, shows how the motives and actions of men heretofore "have rolled out into their consequences."

It enables one to judge the future by the past and strengthen the power of hope.

In conclusion, Sir Oliver

quoted Aristotle to the effect that if a man would do what lies before him and would pursue truth, hold fast to justice, happiness would come. Happiness, he said, is a byproduct of effort and striving, not of passive waiting.

Oberlin College honored

itself by giving Sir Oliver

Franks the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. This philosophy of life deserves all honor. It is a sharp reminder, also, for Americans, that waiting and worrying is not the American way, any more than the British way. They carried on and won through by determination and effort, inspired by hope and a sense of history. So have we done and so can do.

THE IMPORTANT VOICE

The impact of propaganda

may be safely measured by the strength of its counter-attack. That the Voice of America is reaching large numbers of the Russian people and perhaps influencing their thought is proved by the concerted effort of

Pravda, Izvestia, and Radio

Moscow to minimize its effects, according to a recent speech by Mucio Delgado, an official of the State Department's International

Broadcasting Division.

These efforts consist of cartoons, circus and vaudeville acts, parade floats, and scathing articles in the press.

Doubtless many Russians are intelligent enough to judge these attacks for what they are. The Voice will continue to be an effective weapon in the cold war as long as there continues to be a growing audience for its productions and a strong attack, against it.

WHERE CHILDREN RULE

Nonparents always wonder at the failure of parents to discipline their children.

They have grounds for wonder when they read that in Teaneck, N. J., the town's movie house has had to refuse admittance to teenagers because they made so much noise as to destroy the pleasure of the other patrons. Not content with this,

they set the theater on fire

IT WASN'T GOING TO BE EASY AT BEST

three times in three weeks. Many minor fires have been found and put out before they could spread.

In Rocky River, Ohio, a community inhabited mostly by well-to-do people, the graduating class of the high school stays up the entire night before graduation, dancing, eating and having a good time generally. This is the climax of two weeks of fun-making which leaves the children exhausted. One of the Rocky River commencement speakers fainted in the middle of her address.

In both Teaneck and Rocky River the children have taken hold of their households. They must do what the rest of the gang does. Against the dictates of the teen-age community the parents are powerless. Or do they only think they are?

EXAMPLE BY RULERS

King George VI attended the Epsom Downs race track the other day, and nothing was thought of it. No American president has dared to go near the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness or the Belmont Stakes.

The British regard certain of the actions of their rulers as private matters. Americans think more generally of the example to others. This theory, which may or may not be true, may explain why the British have winked at violations of the moral code on the part of some prime ministers. At least one of Queen Victoria's premiers was notoriously lax in this regard, without its affecting his political strength. In the United States such misconduct, if discovered, would wreck the most promising political career. Yet in other ways the British King's life and family are much more closely regulated than is the case with our President. The perpetuation of the King's family is a state problem in Great Britain.

The man who can explain differences in national attitudes such as these will be well on the way to the solution of some of the more perplexing international problems.

REPUBLICAN SPLIT?

If the anti-Communist crusade of Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin has accomplished nothing else, it has revealed a split in the Republicans of the Senate, a split between Senator Taft and his supporters on the one side, and Senator Irving M. Ives of New York on the other. Ives was put in the Senate by the strong efforts of Gov. Dewey, and has been thought to represent Dewey's views on national policy. Whether the views be Ives' or Dewey's, they are obviously not Taft's.

This has just been shown anew by the "Declaration of Conscience" issued by Senator Margaret C. Smith of Maine and six other Republicans, Ives among them. It denounces character assassination by senators, protect-stitutional immunity. The Declaration contained nothing to which most senators presumably could not subscribe. It did not bear Senator Taft's name, however. He has been reported to be giving McCarthy encouragement; in any case, he has uttered no word against him.

Party lines are lose these days. A split between the Taft and Dewey forces in the G. O. P. would darken their election prospects.

"Flirtation" On Highway Is Expensive

A highway "flirtation" cost a Dallas lad $14 in Justice Court here Sunday.

The Dallas youths in a pickup truck were making eyes and words at some women in another vehicle as both cruised down U. S. Highway 75. They would pass, then drop back and pass again.

This kept up for sometime and was "annoying" to the women. So they notified police when they got in Corsicana, and the trio was picked up. The driver was fined.

The charge: "General annoyance."

A report of their findings and suggested improvements will be sent Mayor Hubert T. Braselton about two weeks after the survey is completed.

Reds Dynamite 410-Foot Spire Of Ancient Church

BERLIN, June 19.—(AP)—The 410-foot spire of ancient Georgienkirche (St. George's church) was wrecked with five dynamite charges Sunday by Communist authorities who charged it was unsafe.

A symbol in the fight between church and state in Soviet territories, the steeple was blasted over the protests of church members. Bishop Otto Dibelius, primate of Germany's 14,000,000 Protestants, was one who watched grimly as workmen toiled for nearly three hours to bring down the spire.

He preached a sermon condemning the demolition plans at his church in the American sector and reiterated church folk claims that the spire was safe. Then he went to the Alexander Platz, in the center of Berlin's Russian sector, to watch the dynamiting.

The war-damaged church was not in use but church authorities quoted church officials as calling the demolition plans "another Communist blow at the church."

Vogeler Release Is Hinted Shortly

VIENNA, Austria, June 19.—(AP)—Reliable American informants said today that Robert A. Vogeler, American business man jailed in Hungary on spy charges, may be released this week.

The informants said Hungarian officials have made no definite promises, but indications are that they may turn Vogeler over to U. S. officials Tuesday or Wednesday.

Vogeler, 39, an executive and roving European representative of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company, was sentenced last February on charges of espionage and sabotage. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 15 years.

Farm Talk—

What's Happened To The Vetch Seed? Growers Are Puzzled And Disgusted

By CLYDE JOHNSON
Daily Sun Staff

Vetch growers in this area are downright disgusted.

"Over half the crop should have been harvested by now," they say, with a nasty look at seeds that won't shatter.

But the harvest hasn't even started.

Many of the farmers are disappointedly puzzled. After all, they were planning with pride recently while the cotton fellows were cussing the mud. The vetch was handsome, indeed; the blooms were beautiful; and everyone anticipated a big payoff from the new million-dollar Navarro county cash crop.

To date, though, the fields have seen their third seed crop—with none of it harvested.

County Agent W. H. Walker blames the weather, but he plans an extensive tour this week over the country's vetch fields just to make sure about the situation.

It seems that the consistent rains have produced more and more blooms—and more seed—and a lot of the seed that should have already shattered.

Because of the peculiar weather—the rains, the cool spells, the dampness and heat—a loss per-acre yield is expected this year.

Another county nearby has opened a campaign to have more and better dairy animals. From Hill county comes a report that FFA youngsters will be given registered heifers. Each boy will return the first pedigreed heifer to a distribution committee. The calf then will be given to another lad.

Navarro county has been planning a similar program—copying that from Johnson county—but concrete action still is lacking. The Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, incidentally, is behind the proposed project.

Jim Cummins says students in his vocational agriculture class at Corsicana High School "knew me the horse laugh" when he suggested that hogs should have a good pasture.

Speaking of alfalfa, an agriculturalist from the Renner Foundation near Dallas believes this legume is tops for growth in Navarro county. But there's just one catch to it—root rot. The foundation is studying ways to destroy the menace. When and if it succeeds, there'll be lots of happy farmers in the blacklands belt.

Back to Cummins, it's noted in a Corsicana school system annual.

Soil Conservation District News

District Supervisor Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District—
Morris Crawford, Chairman; W. C. Pearce, Vice-Chairman; Thad Jones, Secretary.

C. E. Phillips, Corbet Conservation group, has soddied approximately three acres to Bermuda grass to establish a base pasture grass. The land had been flatbroken previously. A double-bottom moleboard plow was used to open furrows and cover the sprigs which were dropped by hand in every other furrow. Land was rolled with a heavy roller after sowing.

R. L. Harris, Retreat Conservation group, harvested approximately 3,500 pounds of Texas 46 Rescue grass seed from a 10-acre field. These seed were scattered over low moist areas along farm drains where Harris already had a base grass of Bermuda established.

J. C. Barton, Rice Conservation group, has harvested approximately 1,750 pounds of Texas 46 Rescue seed from 5 acres of cropland. Barton plans to use some of the seed to overseed his permanent pasture and will sell the rest as a cash crop.

C. Moore, Roane Conservation group, has harvested approximately 10 acres of common Rescue grass seed. Moore plans on overseeding his pasture with most of the seed.

to give winter grazing and to help prevent bloating from Bur clover. A. P. Mays, whose farm is nine miles southwest of Corsicana, has a good stand of Bermuda grass that was seeded this spring at the rate of nine pounds per acre. Some areas have a complete cover of grass.

M. W. White, Navarro Conservation group, has a good stand of K. R. Bluestem on five acres that was planted in rows about one month ago. This field of Bluestem will be used for seed production so as to seed other pasture areas.

Action Delayed On Dr. Sander

CONCORD, N. H., June 19.—(AP)—The New Hampshire board of registration in medicine will not act for at least another week on Dr. Siemman N. Sander's application for restoration of his license to practice.

The 42-year old Candia physician's license was revoked April 19, a few weeks after his acquittal of a charge of murder in the death of Mrs. Abbie Borroto, 59, a cancer patient.

The board said, in revoking the license that it would consider an application for reinstatement after two months had elapsed.

A spokesman has reported, however, that Dr. John Wheeler, board secretary, was out of the state and not expected to return until Saturday.

No action can be taken until all members of the five-man board are present.

Mangrum Grabs Palm Beach Cash, Favored For PGA

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., June 19.—(AP)—Wheeling along the road today toward Columbus, Ohio, and the professional golfers' association championship is a guy who will bear watching—and not because he's loaded with fresh money.

Lloyd Mangrum rates as the man to beat in the PGA event as he currently is the hottest thing in golf, with $8,100 in prize money to show for the last three weeks of play.

He picked up $3,000 Sunday by winning the ninth annual Palm Beach Round-robin tournament, the sum going into the kitty along with the $2,500 he won for finishing second, after a playoff, in Fort Wayne, Ind., on the preceding week.

Best in Field
There was nothing fluky about the dapper guy's triumph. He demonstrated convincingly he was the best of the field of 16 star pros in every phase of the four-day, five-round event.

He had the highest point total, 37, with Lawson Little a distant second with 20 points.

His medal score of 344 for the five rounds was nine strokes better than that of the second low man in that department, Claude Harmon.

He shot one round of 65, tying second money of $2,000 in the $15,000 competitive course record.

He was the only entrant to be under par for each of the five rounds.

He beat the two men with whom he tied in the open—Ben Hogan and George Fazio—by 20 and 21 strokes, respectively. As they suffered a jetdown, Mangrum's name blossomed.

The Palm Beach tournament schedule provides that each player play in a foursome with each other player in one of the five rounds. Points are computed by comparing the medal scores of the four-somes members. That is, a man shooting a 70 would be plus two over a rival shooting a par 72.

Lawson Little Second
Little, with a point score of plus 20 and a medal score of 383, took 2000 event, and Claude Harmon won $1,500 for third place. He had plus 15, three points better than fourth-place Herman Barron.

The players finished as follows: Herman Barron, plus 12; Art Bell, plus 10; Mary Middlecoff, plus 10; Jimmy Demaret, plus 2; Sam Snead, plus 2; Jim Ferrier, zero; Jack Burke Jr., zero; Hogan, minus 12; Norman Von Nida, minus 13; George Fazio, minus 15; Paul Runyan, minus 18; Fred Haas, minus 20; and Chick Harbert, minus 31.

Millers, Emhouse, Pursley And Mexia Cats Notch Wins Sunday

The Corsicana Cotton Mill and the Emhouse baseball teams survived threats to their positions Sunday, and finished the day still undefeated in the Navarro-Limestone semipro baseball league.

And Bobby Lawrence, dividing time on the mound, downed Richland, 11-6, with a fast closing spurt in the late innings. Rayburn Matthews' triple, however, was the only extra base hit of the ball game.

Emhouse used the last two frames to count two badly needed runs and down the Mexia Gushers, 5-2, in Mexia. Emhouse had tallied one run in each of the first three frames to lead first, and Mexia had concentrated the three tying runs in the sixth frame.

Emhouse's E. M. Drain pitched seven-hit ball, and drew aid and succor from four Mexia misuses. Emhouse collected 11 hits off Frank Romain, and committed one error. Mexia's J. C. Collier collected a double, the only extra base hit of the game. Chad Sneed led the day's hitting with three for four.

The Gushers thus dropped down to a tie with the Cats, who were routing Rice in the meantime, 15-5 on the Mexia diamond. Windy

Composite Picture Made
At least that's the composite picture of the president's of corporations with outstanding management rating in statistical study to be published this week by the American Institute of Management.

The Institute studied more than 2,000 corporations and selected 238 as being "excellently managed."

Of these, 204 when queried told all about their presidents.

Most of the executives were born in the heavily industrialized states in the northeastern quarter of the nation. Eight were foreign-born.

The Institute notes, however, that the South and Southwest are likely to be partial to native sons to head corporations with headquarters there.

One out of four of the top men never finished college. But here a trend is clearly discernible. The younger the corporation president, the more likely he is to be a college graduate. But the younger firm puts less emphasis on the college degree than does the long established firm. The non-grads are likely to be found among the hold-overs from a more rugged business era or among the heads of fast-growing new industries where aggressiveness counts more than training.

Eastern Schools Lead
Of the three out of four who are college graduates, 40 per cent attended eastern schools. Yale graduates lead the list, with Harvard second, Cornell third, and Columbia, Princeton and the University of California tied for fourth.

The average age of the 204 presidents is 58 (younger than the average director). None is under 40, but one is over 80. The fifties lead with 32 and the sixties number 75.

The presidents usually get, in pay and bonus, more than $100,000 a year, but the range is wide—from more than a half million dollars a year to less than $25,000.

New Principals Date For Fight
NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—There'll not only be a new face but new surroundings and a new date as well when Jake Lamotta defends his world middleweight championship.

Forced by Rocky Graziano's hand injury to do a quick job of improvising, the International Boxing Club announced the following substitute setup:

Principals—Jake Lamotta vs. Italy's Tiberio Mitri.

Date—July 12.

Place—Madison Square Garden.

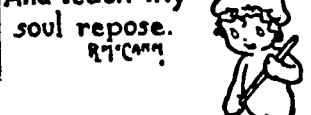

Original plans were for Lamotta to risk his rusting diadem against Graziano June 28 at the Polo Grounds. But Graziano, busted a thumb in training last week and something had to be done in a hurry.

Supt. W. H. Norwood announced that William A. Speary of Texarkana has been elected to be the local teacher-coordinator of the program, which will be offered to juniors and seniors.

Enrollees will be those interested in retailing, wholesaling or service selling work—selling, shipping, receiving, cashing, merchandising, advertising, display, interior decoration, and others. It will consist of class work and on-the-job training, said Norwood.

"One objective of the distributive education program is to bridge the gap between school and employment for high school graduates," the superintendent said.

"Trainees who enroll in the program will receive laboratory credit, as well as a training wage for the work they'll do in downtown stores."

Speary has his Bachelor of Business Administration from Southern State College and has three years' experience in retailing. This is his first year to teach.

Hubbard Negro Schools To Open In Mid-Summer

HUBBARD, June 16.—(AP)—The 1950-1951 session of the negro schools here will begin the second part of July, according to plans worked out at a recent meeting of the board of education. The tentative opening day has been set for Monday, July 24.

Under the new arrangement, the schools would operate for five or six weeks and then be dismissed for a similar period of time, beginning about Sept. 1, so that the pupils can assist in the cotton harvest. For the past several years the attendance of the negro students in the early fall has been very poor, officials have indicated, due to the cotton picking work. Loss of attendance caused the loss of a teacher eligibility which is lost by daily average attendance.

No change is contemplated in the opening of the white schools.
